David Kamo Joins Evercore as Senior Managing Director in Investment Banking

NEW YORK, Feb. 10, 2025 – Evercore (NYSE: EVR) announced today that David Kamo has joined the firm as a senior managing director to support its growing financial sponsor M&A advisory business, based in New York.

“We are excited to welcome David to Evercore,” said Jason Sobol, co-head of Evercore’s U.S. Investment Banking business. “David’s best-in-class M&A execution excellence and exceptional relationships within the sponsor community make him a trusted advisor to so many. His insights will further our M&A expertise across industries, and by working alongside our existing financial sponsor group, he will complement our coverage effort as we continue to invest in and strengthen our platform to deliver outstanding results for our clients.”

Mr. Kamo said, “Financial sponsors continue to be an increasingly important part of the M&A ecosystem. Evercore is a world-class platform that is poised to capitalize on the expected increase in activity, and I couldn’t be more excited to join the firm.”

Mr. Kamo joins Evercore with over 25 years of M&A experience. Most recently, he was a partner and Global Head of Financial Sponsor M&A at Goldman Sachs. Mr. Kamo holds a B.S. from Binghamton University’s School of Management.
